Set Timer To:	12 ▼ hours and 0 ▼ minutes.
	Hint: This is the timer an owner has to make each pick before the timer expires. However, the system will check the status of timer on at least on the quarter-hour so the pick may not be expired immediately after the clock runs out.  The draft timer cannot be suspended overnight if it's set to more than 24 hours.

When the draft timer expires:	The system will always first attempt to pick a player for the owner according to the owner's "Work List" in the Live Draft Room, and then the owner's "My Draft List."
If there's no suitable player in either list:	☒ Skip the pick. The league commissioner may then use the League > Setup > Draft Setup > Change Draft Pick option to pick the appropriate player to compensate for the skipped pick, if league rules permit it. ☐ Pick a player according to rankings generated by Fantasy Sharks experts. For current rankings check Player Research > Player Ranks on the main menu. ☐ Pick the highest ranked eligible player according to the Average Draft Position rankings among similar leagues as shown on the ADP page. ☐ Pick a player according to the personalized recommendations from Fantasy Sharks Draft Coach.
